FREEZE DRIED DINNERS MAKE SERVING RAW EASY

Homestyle Complete Dinners for Dogs – What Healthy Pets Are Made Of™

SuperZoo Booth #2037

MANCHESTER, Conn. – Bravo® Homestyle Complete® Dinners for Dogs – the first freeze dried dinners to join the brand's extensive selection of raw diet products – are a convenient way to serve a raw diet.

Made with premium meat or poultry as the #1 ingredient, Bravo adds wholesome ingredients like organ meat and chickpeas, next. They also include a generous helping of garden vegetables and cranberries, as well as natural herbs like turmeric and sage. Homestyle Complete dinners are available in three different proteins – Beef, Pork and Turkey. Each dinner, which is 100 percent complete and balanced, is low in fat and is grain and gluten free. No artificial preservatives, flavors, or colors of any kind are inside.

Since freeze drying doesn't degrade essential proteins, fatty acids or enzymes, each ingredient's original nutritive value is retained in the most bioavailable form. And because Homestyle Complete doesn't have to be refrigerated, pet parents can take them wherever they go. When mealtime comes around, simply mix with warm water or a light broth and serve as a full meal, a treat or a topper on the pet's regular food. For more sensitive stomachs soak for 10 to 15 minutes before feeding.

Homestyle Complete Dinners for Dogs are available in 3oz. resealable packets as well as 2lb. and 6lb. resealable bags at independent retailers starting at $5.49. Learn more about this healthy new alternative to conventional canine diets by visiting www.BravoPetFoods.com.
