ANIMAL PLANET TO PRESENT NEW LINE OF PET SUPPLEMENTS.

The Discovery Channel & Animal Planet brand will be rolling out its new line of pet supplements at SuperZoo 2018. The products are: Hip & Joint Formula Dog Glucosamine & Chondroitin with Multivitamins, Ultimate Skin & Coat Complex with Collagen and Salmon Oil along with Advantage Probiotic + For Dogs & Cats. These American manufactured pet supplements can be located in Hall D, Booth #3361.

Animal Planet is seen worldwide and the brand is recognized for its quality, influence among pet owners and trustworthiness of its products.

Discovery Channel is the number one most trusted channel in the world, with Animal Planet having 332 million global subscribers in more than 200 territories. As a channel and brand, it has 81% global awareness with 20 years experience connecting animals, pets and families.

Richie Walker, President of the Animal Planet brand of pet supplements states, "These U.S. manufactured pet products have proven to be huge sellers among Costco Asia members and retailers in the Taiwan, Korea, Japan and China markets. We are pleased that Animal Planet acknowledges our quality and selected us to be an Animal Planet brand in the U.S. market as well."

Animal Planet invites all retailers, distributors and interested parties to stop by the booth and pick up product information, samples and discuss working together to enhance their inventory with these premium pet supplements. Animal Planet in Hall
