HUXLEY & KENT OFFERS 10% PREBOOK ON NEW ITEMS FOR 2019 HOLIDAY SEASON AT SUPERZOO

Washington, DC

Huxley & Kent LLC, a wholesaler of fun and functional pet products, will be debuting their 2019 Halloween and Holiday collections at Superzoo in Booth 2608 this year. Huxley & Kent will be introducing their first collection of Halloween toys, new neckwear and bandanas. The holiday program will consist of new red tartan hats and scarves, new toys and new stockings for the pet to celebrate the holidays with the family. All Huxley & Kent products will be 10% off at Superzoo.

“We have watched the retail sales for Halloween and Holiday grow each year and we have added to our collection of best-sellers by adding more products. This year, we are so excited to have many new products to show the retailers in toys, neckwear, bowties, hats, scarves and stockings”, said Robin Kershner, founder of Huxley & Kent. “It’s important to be in front of the retailer at Superzoo so they can finalize their holiday buying and take advantage of our 10% off prebook pricing,” added Kershner. “The sale expires August 27th, so it is the last chance they have to book and save.”
